

Mini Park Rangers

Our Favourite Place at Sydney Olympic Park

Parent's Notes

There are plenty of places to explore, discover and love at Sydney Olympic Park. Does your family have a favourite place?

Connect with Sydney Olympic Park and discover some new places with these simple steps:

- Look at a map of the Park and discover a new place to explore.
- Look through your photos from a previous visit to the Park. Where did you go? What did you do?
- There are 5 different playgrounds across the Park. Have you been to them all? Enjoy a different one on your next visit?
- What season was it when you last visited the Park? Visit a favourite place in a different season and see what changes have occurred?
- Find a new walkway or bike path to explore in the Parklands or town centre?

Find the Sydney Olympic Park map on our website www.sydneyolympicpark.com.au and search the map for new places to discover soon.

My Bucket List

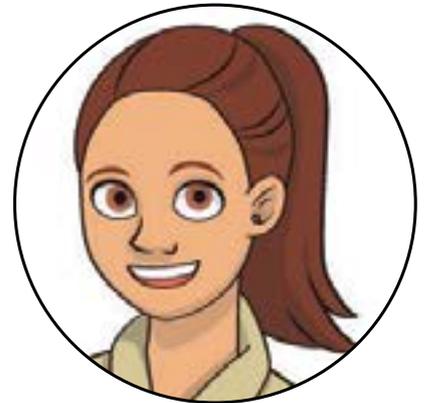

List the places you would like to visit and activities you may do. We added a few to get you started.

| Place to visit | Activity |
|---|---|
| Brickpit Ring Walk | Walk around the 550m & 18.5 metres high walkway |
| Wentworth Common | Ride the flying fox or walk the spiralling pathway to the top of the Bay Marker lookout |
| BirdLife Discovery Centre at Newington Armory | In Spring, visit the BirdLife Discovery Centre and learn more about the Sea Eagles. |
| | |
| | |
| | |

Mini Park Rangers, draw a picture of your favourite place at Sydney Olympic Park and share it with us.

We look forward to learning about the places you love to visit.

The Park Rangers continue to be out and about every day, so look out for us and say hello!

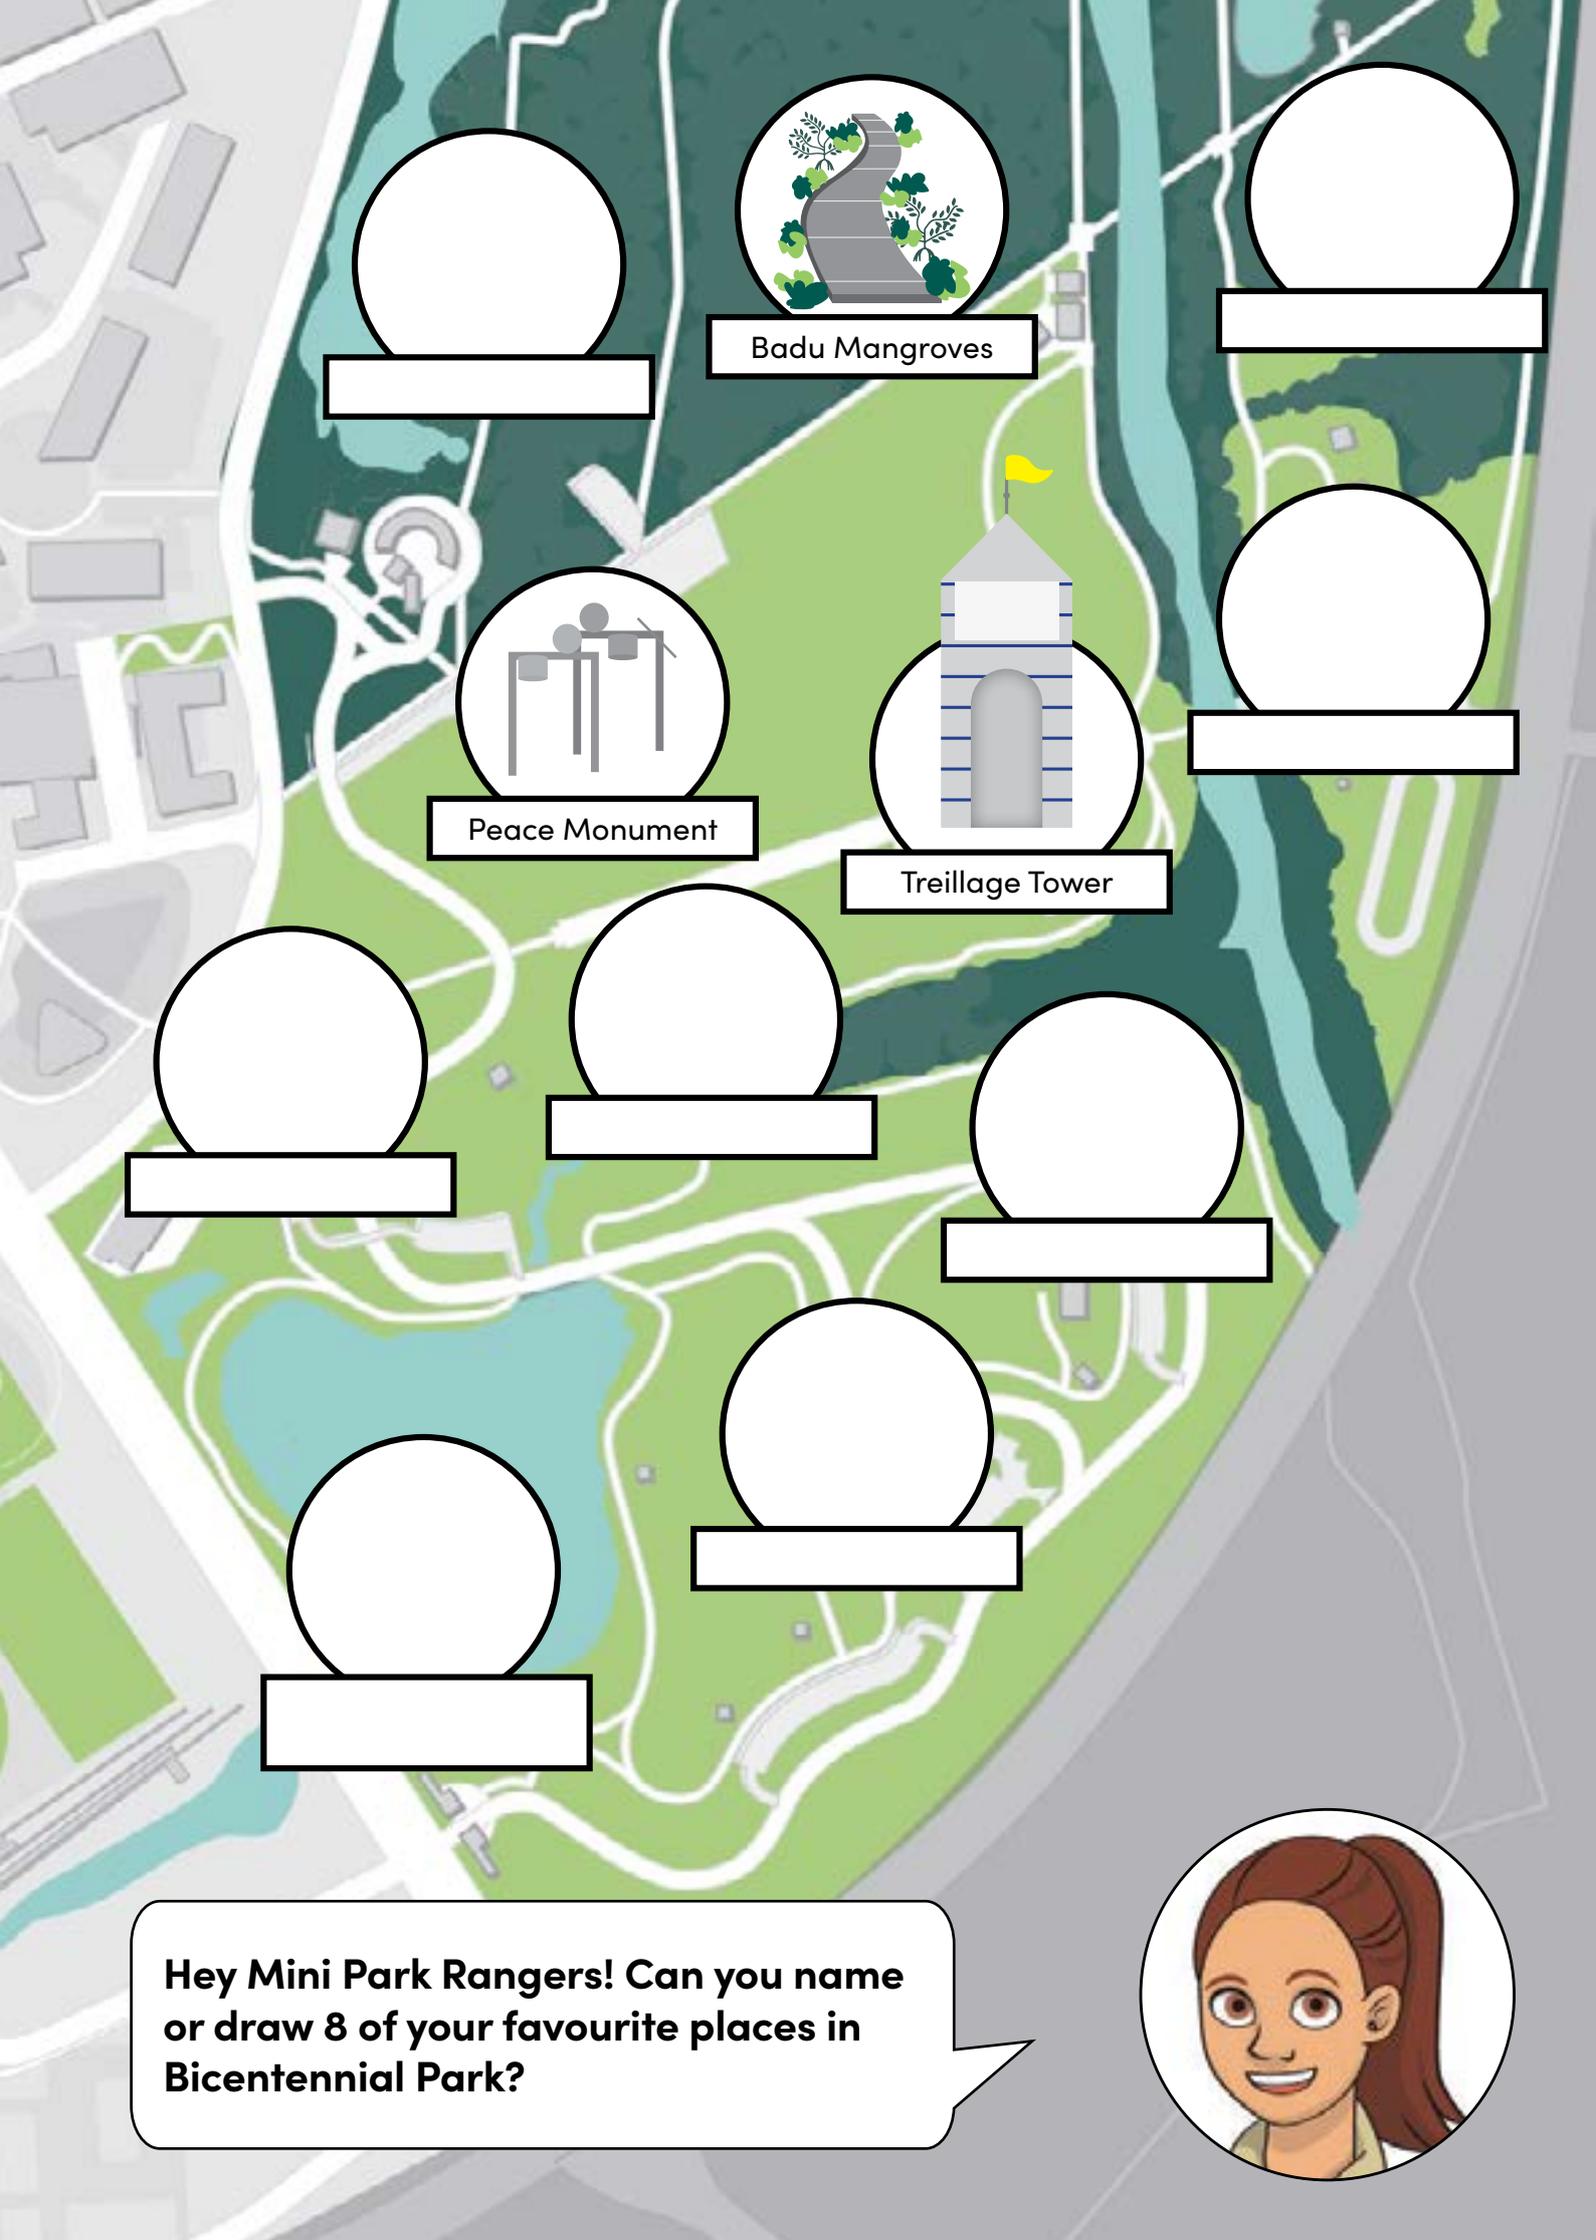

Share a photo of your favourite place with us at:

@sydolympticpark
@sydneyolympicpark

SydneyOlympicPark

Badu Mangroves

Peace Monument

Treillage Tower

Hey Mini Park Rangers! Can you name or draw 8 of your favourite places in Bicentennial Park?

